

The Indiana phone privacy action has been very successful and has limited the number of nuisance calls which I have received. I would, however, like to see it even more restrictive on who is allowed to call. As far as I am concerned, all tele-marketers could and should be restricted. Thank you.
eliminated